“Christmas Lights, River Nights, & Red Rock Magic”

Wonderous Utah Getaway

December 7 – 10, 2026

T’is the season for family and friends to gather and share in the light and love of our favorite season of the year – CHRISTMAS!

DAY ONE: Monday, December 7 – Christmas Along the Way (D)

Depart Boise early this morning for our four-day, three-night Wonderous Utah Getaway! We will travel southeast through Southern Idaho picking up club members along the way and stopping in Tremonton and/or Ogden/Orem for our Eastern Idaho & Utah friends.

A lunch stop will be made in Brigham City, Utah at a favorite, The Old Grist Mill (soup & sandwiches on fresh bread).

We will arrive late afternoon in Provo with time to rest at the Marriott Hotel & Conference Center. Followed by a “Winter Wonderland” Holiday Dinner Buffet onsite at the Provo Marriott.

Buffet includes iced water, holiday punch, Starbucks coffee, and premium tea selection. Dinner will be accompanied by a variety of freshly baked rolls & butter, seasonal vegetable crudité, butternut squash, panzanella salad, Christmas salad, haricot verts, soufflé yams with brûléed marshmallows, apple & cranberry sausage stuffing, chive & Gruyère mashed potatoes w/homestyle turkey gravy, and assorted holiday desserts. Dinner entrees will be roasted ham with citrus clove glaze and roasted tri-tip with a balsamic pomegranate glaze.

Provo is a city in and the county seat of Utah County, Utah, United States. It is 43 miles (69 km) south of Salt Lake City along the Wasatch Front, and lies between the cities of Orem to the north and Springville to the south. Provo is the fourth-largest city in Utah and is Utah's second-largest metropolitan area after Salt Lake City. Provo is the home to Brigham Young University (BYU), a private higher education institution operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS Church). The city is a focus area for technology development in Utah, with several billion-dollar startups. The city's Peaks Ice Arena was a venue for the Salt Lake City Winter Olympics in 2002. The Provo area was originally called Timpanogas, a Numic (Ute people) word perhaps meaning "rock river". The area was inhabited by the Timpanogos. It was the largest and most settled area in modern-day Utah. The ample food from the Provo River made the Timpanogos a peaceful people and was used as a common location for worship of their creator deity

Enjoy a boat ride adventure on the Provo River with festive decorations and thousands of lights that twinkle above the river with Christmas music playing softly in the background. Even Santa can't resist this special event and will pay a surprise visit to all the kid-at-hearts to pass out Christmas Candy and bellow a hearty Ho-Ho-Ho! Warm clothing and blankets are recommended. A Christmas movie, hot chocolate, and a cookie add to the festivities.

DAY TWO: Tuesday, December 8 – From River Lights to Red Rocks (B, D)

Following a delicious Breakfast Buffet consisting of freshly scrambled eggs, crisp bacon & sausage links, roasted potatoes with peppers & onions, freshly baked muffins, Danish & croissants, whipped butters & assorted spreads, fresh fruit, assorted yogurt & house granola at the hotel, we will have time to be elves in Santa's Workshop making Christmas Gifts. Then we board our motor coach and head to St. George.

There will be a lunch/shopping stop in Beaver City, Utah, at the Beaver Creamery.

Since 1952, The Creamery has brought wholesome dairy from our local family farmers to your family table. The Beaver, Utah store is great for a hot meal at the quick-service restaurant, treat yourself to one of our 24 flavors of ice cream, shop The Creamery cheeses and grocery items, explore the farm-to-table experiential room, and enjoy pet-friendly outdoor seating with scenic Utah views. Menu items include a variety of appetizers, sandwiches, soup & salad, pizza, and their famous mac n cheese.

After lunch, we travel on to the Staybridge Suites in St. George, Utah. You will have plenty of time to relax at the hotel before dinner at the Cliffside Restaurant overlooking the scenic St. George Valley. The restaurant offers not only an amazing view but also a unique experience that you will not find anywhere else in southern Utah.

Your taste buds will enjoy a mozzarella crostini, Cliffside salad, seasonal vegetables, Yukon Gold mashed potatoes with chives, garlic, & butter to accompany four entrees to try: penne rustica pasta, pan roasted chicken, sweet chili glazed salmon, New York strip steak. Lilikoi cheesecake tartlet for dessert and a soft drink bar included. We heard there is a Christmas Evening Surprise Activity, after dinner.

DAY THREE: Wednesday, December 9 – Red Rocks & Christmas Magic (B, D)

Enjoy a delightful breakfast at the hotel before our fun-filled day exploring St. George. We will begin our day at Snow Canyon State Park with ample time to discover the sand dunes, view slot canyons, and experience the visitor center.

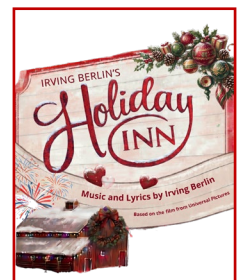

Snow Canyon State Park is quietly tucked amid lava flows and soaring sandstone cliffs. Snow Canyon is located in the Red Cliffs Desert Reserve. The canyon is made up of stone sand dunes from Navajo sandstone – burnt orange and creamy white in color. Anasazi and Paiute Indians used the canyon until the mid-1800's when Mormon pioneers arrived. If lucky, you may see the desert tortoise which the Reserve was established to protect.

After Snow Canyon State Park, we will head to Ancestor Square with Brigham Young's Winter home, lunch and shopping on your own.

We will return to the hotel in the early afternoon to freshen up before heading to Tuacahn for our Festive Dinner (cranberry apple spinach salad with a honey citrus dressing, garlic parmesan rolls, garlic mashed red potatoes, creamy chicken fettuccine alfredo, oven roasted sliced turkey breasts, and shredded glazed sweet pork. There will be triple chocolate chunk brownies & pecan caramel turtle brownies for dessert; strawberry lemonade and water is also included) catered by "Katering Koncepts" in Tuacahn's, Fowler Studio.

After delicious feasting, we enjoy a full night of Christmas in the Canyon, lights, plaza & festivities, a Live Nativity, and "Holiday Inn" play at the Tuacahn Hafen Theatre.

Experience the joy and classic melodies of Irving Berlin's Holiday Inn at The Hafen Theatre at Tuacahn in Ivins, UT. This stage musical, inspired by the beloved film, brings a festive celebration to life with iconic songs by the legendary Irving Berlin. Follow the story of Jim Hardy as he leaves Broadway for a Connecticut farmhouse and turns it into a country inn that only opens on holidays, leading to romance and musical numbers. Please enjoy this family-friendly production.

From Tuacahn, we'll board the motor coach heading for the hotel and a good night's sleep.

DAY FOUR: Thursday, December 10 – Home for Christmas (B, L)

We will begin the day with breakfast before we board the motor coach and say farewell to St. George.
